

Maison Vow

Vow to design your tailor-made moments

About Us

At Maison Vow, we believe every love story deserves to be beautifully planned and gracefully lived. More than planners, we are your dedicated partners — guiding you with care, creativity, and calm through every moment of your journey.

From intimate gatherings to grand celebrations, our purpose is to bring your vision to life with elegance, precision, and heart. We curate each detail with intention, ensuring your wedding feels effortless, meaningful, and entirely yours — a dream seamlessly turned into reality.

Our Services

- Advice and initial diagnostics : Budget analysis, analysis of the couple's expectations, study of the budget)
- Global strategy and planing : Preparation of a detailed budget and tracking table, construction of a reverse schedule (milestones, deadlines, payment schedule and priority management and monthly action plan)
- Research and selection of service providers (venues, caterer, photographer, DJ, officiant, florist, videographer, etc.) : Sending briefs to service providers and receiving quotes, organizing, supporting, and reporting on appointments
- Contracting & administrative management : Reviewing and monitoring/approving service provider contracts, managing legal and administrative documents (quotes, invoices) and monitoring of supplier payments
- Coordination and operational management : Complete coordination on the day and management of unforeseen events
- Technical and logistical production : table plans, accommodation research

Nos Formules

The Journey

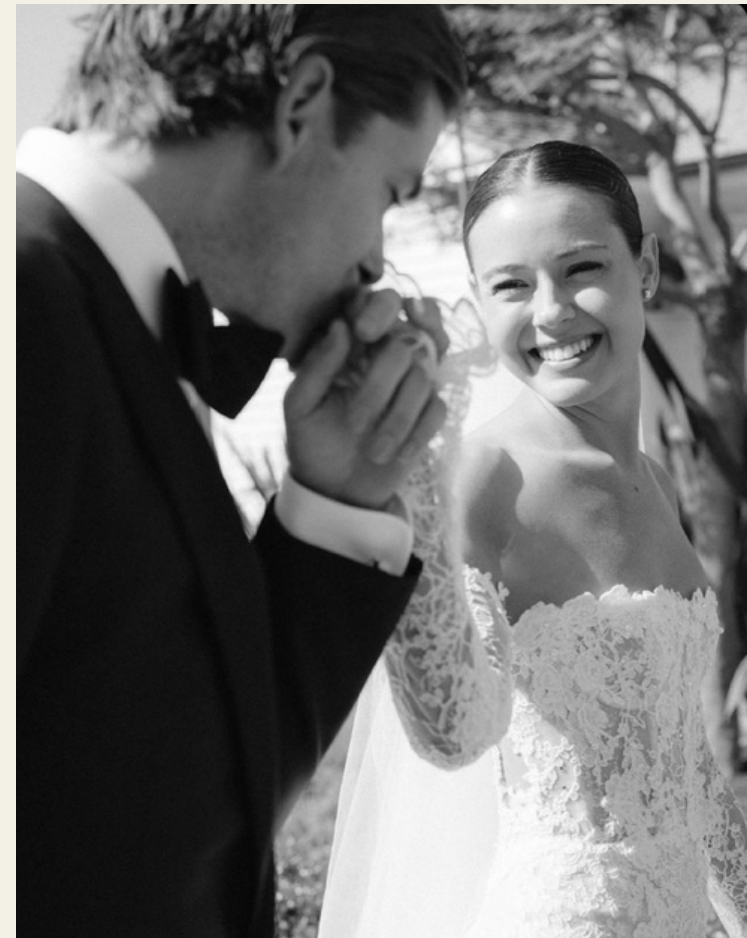

“From first idea to forever”

Full-service wedding planning with a bespoke approach, guiding you from the initial inspiration through to the big day, including the selection and management of all vendors.

The Escape

“From vision to destination”

Turnkey planning of your destination wedding, including on-site coordination and full vendor management.

The Moment

“From your plans to perfect
exécution”

Day-of coordination, from the finalization of your preparations to the seamless orchestration of your wedding.

The Essantials

“Four your needs to tailored support”

Tailor-made, à la carte support to provide the expertise you need at every stage of your journey.

The Journey

"From first idea to forever"

Maison Vow's signature package. Designed for couples who want comprehensive, tailored support, it allows you to experience every step of the preparations with complete peace of mind. From project conception to coordination on the big day, including vendor management and the complete design of your wedding, we orchestrate every detail with precision, elegance, and discretion.

Your only mission? Enjoy the moment.

Includes:

- Development of the budget and schedule for the year
- Selection of trusted vendors (venues, caterer, photographer, etc.)
- Personalized support at every stage
- Technical visits, coordination of appointments
- Contract and budget management
- Discreet but active presence on the big day to organize everything and manage any unforeseen events.

Price: from €3,700 excluding vat (Price adjusted according to the number of vendors, the complexity of the project, and the destination ...)

The Escape

"From vision to destination"

The Maison Vow Destination Package is designed for couples dreaming of an exceptional wedding abroad, combining elegance, escape, and complete peace of mind.

Planning a wedding internationally requires expert knowledge and meticulous attention to detail. With our Destination Package, we guide you from concept to execution, orchestrating every step with precision, discretion, and the highest standards.

From sourcing the perfect venue to on-site coordination, including the management of local vendors and logistical support for your guests, we craft a seamless, refined, and flawlessly executed experience.

Your only role: to fully enjoy this unique moment, wherever you are in the world.

What this package includes:

- Research and selection of exceptional destinations and venues, perfectly aligned with your vision
- Creation of a detailed budget and timeline tailored to the specificities of a destination wedding
- Selection and coordination of trusted local vendors (venue, catering, photographer, technical teams, etc.)
- Tailored support in organizing travel and accommodation for your guests
- Planning and management of site visits, technical visits, and necessary travel
- Full administrative, contractual, and logistical management for a seamless remote planning experience
- Complete design of your wedding aesthetic, in harmony with the chosen destination
- On-site presence and coordination on the wedding day (and related events), with smooth handling of any unforeseen circumstances

Starting from 4 200 € (excl. VAT)

Pricing may vary depending on the destination, duration of on-site presence, number of guests, and overall project complexity.

The Moment

"From Your Plan, To perfect execution"

You've carefully planned your wedding, and you want to fully experience the big day without stress or unforeseen events. Maison Vow seamlessly takes over three month before your event to ensure complete wedding day coordination. We act as a discreet intermediary between you, your guests, and your vendors, ensuring a stress-free, elegant day, with every detail under control.

Includes:

- Initiation 3 months prior
- Contact with all your vendors
- Development of the detailed schedule
- Presence and coordination on the big day
- Management of unforeseen events

Price: from €1190 excluding vat

The Essentials

“From your needs to tailored support”

A formula designed for independent couples who want guidance without completely delegating the planning of their wedding. Maison Vow provides ad hoc support with key appointments, a tailor-made schedule, and recommendations from trusted service providers. This ensures you're laying the right foundation while maintaining control over your project.

For example :

- Venue research (from €300)
- Decorative support (from €250)
- 2-hour video coaching (€100)

N